

Report on visit of Trainee Forest Range Officer from TSFA to the IFB, Hyderabad on 2nd January 2019

The seminar started with welcome addressed by Dr Ratnaker Jauhari, CF & Head of Extension Division IFB, and Hyderabad to the trainee Forest Range Officer from TSFA. Then he had an interaction with them. There were 80 FRO trainees from Telangana forest Academy, Dulapally.

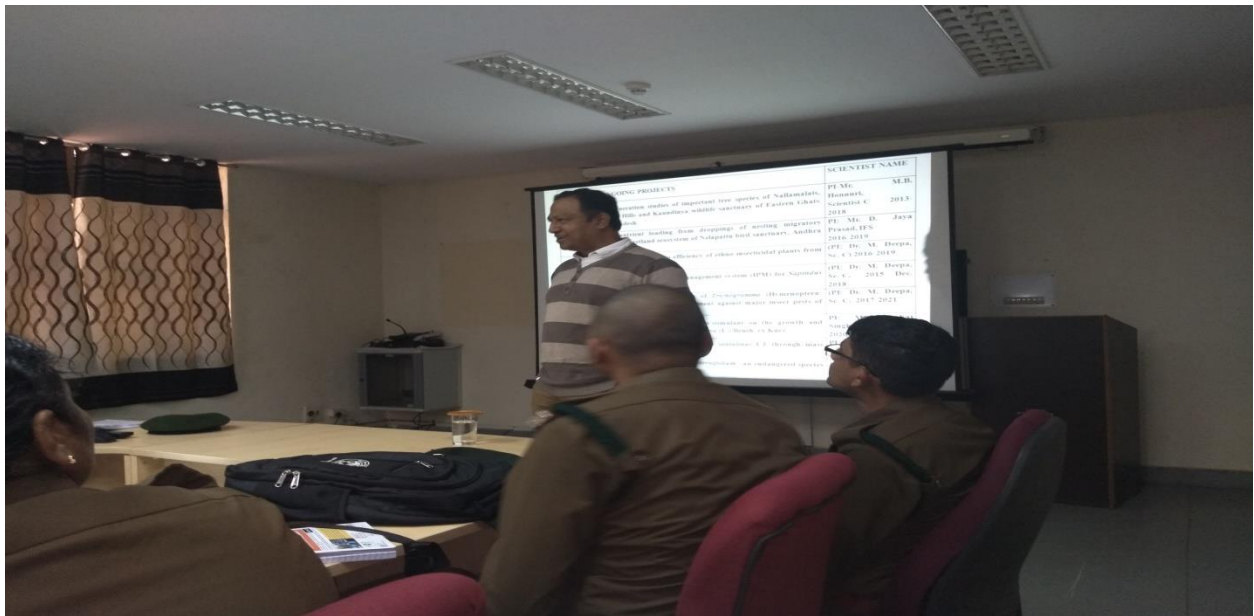

Dr. Ratnaker Jauhari, CF & Head of Extension Division given presentation on the Institute of Forest Biodiversity and its activities.

Dr. S Pattanaik Scientist-F explained about the activities going in research in Red sanders side He discussed about the Red Sanders and their different Cultivation Techniques.

The trainee Forest Range Officer visited the Molecular biology, Entomology, Soil Laboratories and also visited the Rauwolfia serpentina Nursery. The respective scientists of the laboratories explained about the equipments and their usage in the laboratories. They have visited the Poly house. They also visited and got the information regarding the Red sander cultivation techniques. The visit ended with a group photo and conclusion by Director IFB, Sri. D. Jayaprasad

Presentation about IFB, Hyderabad by Dr.Ratnaker Jauhari IFS, CF& Head of Extension

Presentation by Dr S Pattanaik Scientis-F

Trainee Forest Range Officers in Entomology Laboratory

Trainee Forest Range Officers in Poly House cultivation of Red Sanders

IFB Officials and Trainee F.R.O's
